Two fire alarms on Sunday kept the boys free from enui. Both were inconsequential but might have been damaging had it not been for prompt action of the fire fighters. The boys also put the squeegie on a blaze in Palatka Hights last Saturday.

Hon. Henry S. McKenzie attended the meeting of the Mother's Pension Commission in Jacksonville this week, when the commission as recently appointed by Gov. Trammell was organized. Mr. McKenzie was honored by being named chairman of the commission.

The present city council is going to do something toward putting a stop to our water outlay. Alderman Jarrett has shown that the present municipal plant is a losing venture, and a committee has been appointed to open negotiations with the Boston company, owning the old plant, with a view to its purchase.

The many friends of Mr. F. L. Thorpe, former manager of the Southern Bell Telephone company for Palatka, and his genial wife, who recently moved to Orlando, will be pleased to know that they are now pleasantly located in that beautiful little city of lakes and homes. They are making many new friends, who have given them a hearty welcome and shown them many social favors. Mrs. Thorpe writes interestingly of her new work there and no doubt in time the Orlando office may become the popular "bureau of information" that the Palatka office was.
